

The Toll Gate Georgette Heyer

The Toll Gate Georgette Heyer - The Toll Gate was an interesting read and my rating is hovering somewhere between 3.75* to 4* for this Georgette Heyer work, the reasons for which I shall elaborate further in my review below. The Toll-Gate was published in 1954, when Georgette Heyer was at the peak of her powers as a writer, and it shows. Unlike many of Heyer's historical novels which concentrate on a plucky heroine, this one follows the adventures of a male main character, an ex-captain in the British Army who has returned from the Peninsular War and finds life as a civilian rather dull.
